

LOCAL NEWS.

MR. DUFFIELD.—The concert of this native vocalist on Wednesday night was a decided hit—though the room was not so crowded as it might have been. There was but one opinion expressed, and that was decidedly in favor of the vocalist, who is just commencing his career. His voice is powerful, and of great compass, and many of his ballads were sung with very pleasing effect—we have never heard a vocalist possessing such immense strength of voice, and, under proper tutorage, it is our opinion that Mr. D. might become one of the most popular singers of the day.

By unanimous request of his friends, he will give another concert at Concert Hall this evening. It ought to be a bumper.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CONFERENCE.—The annual meeting of the Baltimore Conference for 1844 held its opening session on Wednesday morning last at the Foundry-Chapel in this city. Bishop Morris is presiding over its deliberations, assisted by Bishops Soule and Waugh—the Rev. S. A. Rozzel and Rev. W. O. Lumsden officiating as Secretaries. A large number of ministers are in attendance, to whom the hospitalities of the city have been tendered by our citizens generally, without respect to sect. The sessions of the Conference thus far have been private—having been engaged in the investigation of such charges as may be brought against any of its members.

TWENTY-EIGHTH CONGRESS,

FIRST SESSION.

THURSDAY, MARCH 14, 1844.

SENATE.

Messages were received from the President conveying two communications from the State Department, one giving a list of consuls and vice consuls of the United States, and the other information respecting the abuse of the flag of the United States in regard to the African slave trade.

Mr. WRIGHT presented a remonstrance of ship owners of New York against the repeal of reciprocity treaties.

Mr. ALLEN, from Wayne and Pickway counties, Ohio, asking that Oregon may be put under the protection of this Government.

RETRENCHMENT AND REFORM.

Mr. HAYWOOD, in conformity with previous notice, introduced a large number of bills (twenty-seven in all, we believe), for reducing the pay of all officers of the Government. The President's salary after the 4th of March next, and all others from the passage of the bill. [We did not notice among them one to reduce the honorable Senator's own pay.]

A resolution submitted yesterday by Mr. Haywood, calling for a variety of information in connection with Louisiana land claims, was taken up.

Mr. JOHNSON objected to its passage. The information called for was already published, and could be found in the State papers. The only purpose of the resolution must be to defeat the bill before the Senate for settling these claims.

Mr. HAYWOOD was obliged to the Senator for the information that the State papers contained what he called for. He knew already that it was partly there, but nothing of the claims, some 50,000 in number, which were to be taken in a lump under the 13th section of the bill.

Mr. BARROW thought the Senator from N. Carolina could not have been aware what his resolution did, in reality, call for. Mr. B. then read the resolution, which he had not noticed yesterday when it was presented. The gentleman, it seemed, was particularly hostile to the 13th section of the bill. Now, he (Mr. B.) submitted this proposition, either that the resolution called for the publication of five volumes such as this, (holding up a huge one) or else for a list of claims reported against any board of commissioners sitting in Louisiana. The 13th section does not provide for the confirmation of any cases not favorably reported upon by the commissioners. The rest are to be adjudicated upon by the courts, and certainly the Senate cannot be expected to sit, as a judicial tribunal on these claims.

Mr. Haywood's resolution was, on a division, laid on the table.

Mr. JARNAGIN submitted a resolution that the Secretary of the Treasury report the amount of revenue from lands and imports since the 30th September.

Mr. ARCHER attempted to address the Senate upon the Oregon resolution, but he was compelled by indisposition to give way, and the subject was postponed.

The Senate passed into Executive session.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. CATLIN submitted a resolution that the use of the Hall be granted, on Thursday evening next, to the Congressional Temperance Society.

Mr. HOPKINS objected, as we understood, to the consumption of candles.

Mr. HAMLIN, of Me., moved a suspension of the rules; but on taking the vote by tellers, there were but 64 to 25—no quorum.

Mr. HUDSON, of Mass., called for the yeas and nays, but withdrew the call upon being informed that the time consumed would be deducted from the hour to which Mr. C. B. Smith of Indiana was entitled.

RHODE ISLAND.

Mr. C. SMITH, of Indiana, took the floor, and replied most conclusively to the Jack Cade speeches of Messrs. Rathbun of N. Y., and Kennedy of Ia. When Mr. S.'s hour expired,

Mr. CAUSIN, of Md., first addressed the Speaker.

Mr. MCCLERNAND, of Ill., and Mr. HALE, of N. H., also rose, but not until Mr. C. had claimed the floor.

The Speaker, notwithstanding, gave the floor to the member from Illinois, which circumstance created considerable sensation in the Hall; being viewed as an outrage upon the rights of the member who first addressed the Chair.

The SPEAKER, in extenuation, said the gentleman from Maryland had already once before addressed the House on this question.

Mr. CAUSIN said he had risen now to offer an amendment.

Messrs. HALE and MCCLERNAND (particularly the former) vociferously called to order.

Mr. CAUSIN said he addressed an inquiry to the Chair. He rose to submit an amendment, and desired, if in order, to be heard.

The SPEAKER said the gentleman certainly had a right to offer an amendment, but, not knowing that such was his purpose, he had recognized the gentleman from Illinois, who addressed the Chair immediately after.

Mr. WHITE, of Ky., suggested, with deference to the Speaker, that the member from Maryland had the floor of right, and if the Chair was mistaken in the purpose for which he took it, still it was his right.

The subject was left in statu quo, and will come up again this morning.

THE REVENUE.

Mr. HARDIN, of Ill., submitted a resolution calling on the Secretary of the Treasury to report the amount of revenue received for the present fiscal year, and estimates for the unascertained balance. The resolution was objected to by the democracy.

Mr. H. asked for a suspension of the rules, but this was refused by a vote of 81 to 89.

TONNAGE OF VESSELS.

Mr. KENNEDY, of Md., reported a bill to regulate the mode of measuring the tonnage of vessels, and moved its reference to the Committee of the Whole.

Mr. McKAY moved its reference to the Committee on Commerce.

Mr. KENNEDY said it had been considered by that committee in the last Congress; but Mr. McK.'s motion prevailed.

Mr. McKAY moved that the House go into Committee of the Whole.

WEST POINT.

Mr. DROMGOOLE was called to the Chair, and the Military Academy bill was further considered.

Mr. C. JOHNSON was for the destruction of the institution.

Mr. McKAY was for great modification.

Mr. BLACK said, correct abuse, but do not destroy the Academy.

Mr. HARALSON, of Ga., was partially opposed, and partially not.

Mr. FICKLIN was for entire destruction, and that as soon as possible. It was a corrupt, rotten, and detestable institution.

Mr. DAVIS, of Kentucky, thought it a little inconsistent that the very members who displayed in their remarks here the most warlike spirit, who were constantly talking about war, and the prowess of the people in arms, should be foremost in their zeal for the destruction of an institution designed to impart military knowledge.

Mr. D. believed that most of the disasters that occurred in the last war might be traced to a want of proper military science in the officers whom we had in service.

If rumor was to be credited, we were to have, some time this session, a treaty for the annexation of Texas. If this should be, who could say how near we now stood to one of those collisions in which foe met foe, and steel clashed against steel.

We might have a war with Mexico, or with Great Britain, which would call for all our military skill and resources, and render the institution inestimably valuable.

Mr. D. took occasion, before closing his remarks, to pay a high compliment to Lieutenant Hanson, (one of the graduates of West Point,) for his brilliant services in the late Florida war.

Mr. MCLELLAND, of Mich., made a sensible defence of the institution.

Mr. HOLMES, of S. C., took the same position.

Mr. WELLER, of Ohio, went for the destruction of the Academy. [It is a little singular that Mr. W.'s first effort, after a period of long silence, should be in a speech about fighting.] He particularly reflected upon cadets for resigning when the Florida war broke out.

Mr. FISH, of N. Y., asked him if he knew about what time Lieut. Van Buren, son of Martin Van Buren, resigned his commission?

Mr. WINTHROP, in answer to some suggestions about Texas, said he believed there was more in that matter than met the ear, and, friendly as he was to West Point, if he thought that the military knowledge acquired there was to be applied in wrenching Texas from Mexico, he would vote with the gentleman from New Hampshire for levelling the Academy with the ground.

Mr. SCHENCK, of Ohio, next addressed the Committee in a cogent argument of considerable length in defence of West Point.

The Committee rose, and Mr. C. JOHNSON submitted a resolution fixing the time for closing debate on this bill to be five minutes after the Committee next take it up.

A motion for adjournment was made, and the yeas and nays were called upon it; and were yeas 82, nays 66.

So the House adjourned.

BY LAST NIGHT'S MAIL.

The Philadelphia U. S. Gazette states that the decision of the Circuit Court of the United States for the eastern district of Pennsylvania, relative to the claim of the United States Bank for damages on the French bill case, has been reversed, so that the bank will be allowed to retain the amount kept back from this account. The case was "the United States vs. the United States Bank."

THE FRENCH STEAMERS.—The New York American says:

"The lines of French steamers which we have been taught to expect would certainly be established this spring between Havre and New York is, it would seem, as well as those from Nantz to Brazil, and from Bordeaux to the Antilles and Gulf of Mexico, indefinitely postponed."

"The Courier des Etats Unis says the vessels are built and every thing is ready; but instead of sending them forth as designed by the Chamber of Deputies when they appropriated twenty-eight millions francs to the enterprise, the Minister of Marine employs such of them as have been put in commission, in transporting troops between Toulon and Algiers."

"The apprehension of the expense of keeping up those lines is assigned as the reason."

NEW ORLEANS.—The New Orleans Bee of the 6th says:—"The number of vessels in port on Saturday last, was 270. Of this number 200 were American; 64 British; 5 Bremen; 2 French. Their aggregate tonnage is about 127,085 tons, viz.: American vessels, 83,028; British, 40,897; Bremen, 2,038; French, 852."
